Creativity Week

Years 3, 4 and 5 enjoyed their own 'Strictly' experience on Wednesday when they took part in a Ballroom Dancing Workshop.

Year 6 made a Musical in a Day; storyteller David Heathfield worked with Year 6 and Plum and Mulberry children on the Cinderella story; Year 1 classes made puppets and Year 2 enjoyed a poetry workshop. Photos of the week should be on the website soon.

Please don't let your children ride their scooters on the pathways in school. It can be dangerous for the adults and children walking into school, and PLEASE do not smoke outside the school gates

Tickets are selling fast for the Westover Green Performers next production - You've Got a Friend in Me (Disney Songs) on Saturday 28 March in the School Hall. Please see Mrs Ingram if you want tickets - there are not many left!

Have a lovely half term holiday, see you back at school on Monday 23 February.

If your child has school meals and changes back to sandwiches from home, please let the school office know. If the caterers don't know about any changes you will be charged for meals which have been ordered, even if your child has not eaten the meal.

Thank you to all staff and children who wore something blue for Blue Mo Day today. We raised £338.37

Well done!
